Greeks Ending Violence Now

Purpose of GEVN: Peer group educating and spreading awareness of sexual assault and violence to members of the Iowa State University Greek Community. Education will be hands on and interactive. We will discuss consent education, sexual assault among college students, cultural influence of sexual assault and violence, victim blaming, bystander intervention, and resources at Iowa State University and in the Ames community.

Please return this interest form to gevn@iastate.edu by March 27th at 5:00pm.

An all-day training with ACCESS will be held on Sunday, April 12th from 10am-6pm. This training is MANDATORY.

Name: ____________________________  Phone Number: ____________________________
Email: ____________________________  Chapter Affiliation: __________________________

1) Please describe your community and volunteer involvement.

2) Why are you interested in becoming a facilitator of Greeks Ending Violence Now?

3) Discuss strengths/skills you would be able to use a facilitator.

4) What are your expectations as a facilitator for GEVN? How will being a facilitator benefit you?

5) What experiences do you have with public speaking?

6) What aspects of sexual assault awareness and prevention interest you? Why?

7) How do you balance your time? Will bi-weekly meetings in the fall as well as facilitating presentations be a conflict for you?

- By submitting this application, I understand that there is a required training on April 12th and if I do not attend this training, it may prohibit my involvement with Greeks Ending Violence Now.
- Please direct questions to Maura at gevn@iastate.edu

- If you would like to speak to someone confidentially about this topic or if you need a space to process any reactions you have while filling out this application, advocates from ACCESS are available to speak with you. If it is non-urgent, you can contact Natasha at prevention@assaultcarecenter.org or 515-520-4231. If you are in need of immediate assistance, the 24/7 sexual assault crisis line for ACCESS is 515-292-5378. ACCESS services are free, voluntary, and confidential.